

Jesse Smith Library
144 Main Street
Harrisville, RI 02830
568-8244

Park in the municipal lot on the corner of East and Main Sts.

Carefully cross to the Gazebo on the Burrillville Town Common.
The surrounding gardens were planted in memory of various town residents, so enjoy the scents and colors.

Face the gazebo and turn 180 degrees to face Jesse Smith Library.
Carefully cross Main St. (use the crosswalk please).
Turn right and walk until you are facing the library.

~ Welcome to Jesse Smith Library~

In a building full of books, how can you find the right one?
Start with Grandfather Time and your search has just begun.

Walk 25 paces EAST into a room piled book on book.
You'll face the windows on the Old Mill Pond, take a long watery look.
Walk 20 paces NORTH till you're facing books of brown.

Now a 90 degree turn to the WEST-gaze out the window at my hometown.
Another 90 degree turn to the SOUTH and you're getting close to home.

Walk 15 paces and then STOP as there's no more need to roam.

Look to your left and up 5 shelves...
find hidden in Burrillville history (974.5155) among books on men and mills,
The secret book, the treasure box book marked "B" for the town in the hills.
